House Bill No. 6562

Introduced by Representative MARIA VANESSA C. AUMENTADO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to convert the Jct. Loay Interior-Pob. Dagohoy-La Esperanza-Taming, Danao Road located in the Province of Bohol, into a national road.

The existing Jct. Loay Interior Road-Pob. Dagohoy-La Esperanza-Taming, Danao Road is a provincial road with a length of 26.200 kms. It is composed of gravel and upgraded road with a concrete width of 6.10 meters. It directly connects secondary roads in which most motorist traveling from the towns of Dagohoy and Danao or vice versa may traverse through it without necessarily passing through the busy streets of the neighboring towns; it effectively reduced travel time and maintenance costs.

Definitely, a smooth road is essential to the safety of travelers, and hastens transportation of goods and services, considering most residents are into farming. It also enables residents to have easy access to schools and health facilities. Truly, improvement of road network is important in uplifting the way of life and economic stability of the place. The conversion of said road into national road would definitely be helpful to Bohol tourism, agribusiness and other industries; it could spur the socio-economic development in the 2nd District of Bohol.

Cognizant of the impact of a well-maintained and quality roads to the promotion of Bohol tourism and enhancement its other industries, conversion of this road is being prioritized and proposed to be funded under the Tourism Road Infrastructure Program-TRIP and Road Leverage Linkages for Industry and Trade Infrastructure Program-ROLL-IT in the annual DPWH Budget Proposal.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly requested.
