House Bill No. 7491

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Article II, Section 14 of the 1987 Constitution provides that:

The State recognizes the role of women in nation-building, and shall ensure the fundamental equality before the law of women and men.

Article XIII, Section 14 of the 1987 Constitution provides that:

The State shall protect working women by providing safe and healthful working conditions, taking into account their maternal functions, and such facilities and opportunities that will enhance their welfare and enable them to realize their full potential in the service of the nation.

It is clear from these provisions that the State should ensure the full participation of women and that their potential must be realized. Gone are the days where women are restricted to certain professions. In the Philippine National Police, there are many instances where women police officers have shown that not only are they equal to their male counterparts, they are even better.

Thus, this bill which seeks to amend RA 8551 and provide for a gradual increase in the number of women in law enforcement by increasing to 25% in a 5-year period and to 50% ten years thereafter.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly requested.

RUFUS B. RODRIGUEZ

MAXIMO B. RODRIGUEZ, JR.
