House Bill No. 7492

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine National Police (PNP) is tasked to maintain peace and order and ensure that safety of the Filipino people.

To do this, the PNP has to adapt to the current situation, and transform and develop itself in order to properly respond to new and emerging threats. To do so, we also need to ensure that we continue to strengthen the PNP and revitalize its ranks. We also need to ensure that the PNP maintains accountability and uprightness in police exercise of discretion.

This bill seeks to strengthen the Internal Affairs Service of the PNP to be able to properly perform its functions of being the monitoring body of the character and behavior of all policemen and operates as the investigating and adjudicatory body on all administrative offenses committed by PNP personnel.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly requested.
