HOUSE BILL NO. 8633

Introduced by Representative ERIC G. YAP

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to establish a comprehensive and responsive Civil Registration and Vital Statistics (CRVS) system that ensures the accurate, timely, and secure registration of births, deaths, marriages, and other changes in civil status of all Filipinos while safeguarding the integrity of civil registry documents. A reliable CRVS system is fundamental to governance to generate accurate demographic data for planning, target social protection programs, and uphold every individual's legal identity.

The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) reported that approximately 3.7 million Filipinos, which comprises 3.4% of the population, remain without birth registration¹. A significant portion of this consists of children aged zero to fourteen (0 - 14) years old. It exposes them to risks of exclusion from basic services such as education, healthcare, and social welfare. The country also faces serious integrity issues in civil registration. Previous reports indicate the proliferation of fraudulent and irregular civil registry documents, particularly through delayed registration processes². PSA disclosed that millions of late birth registrations filed in recent years are subject to verification, while thousands of suspicious records have already been flagged, blocked, or referred for legal action. This includes high-profile cases³ that revealed systemic vulnerabilities in identity documentation which undermines public trust and poses risks to national security and public administration.

Furthermore, this proposed measure aligns with Philippine's commitments to international human rights instruments. This includes the Universal Declaration of Human Rights which recognizes the right of every person to legal identity, and the

This vital piece of legislation ensures the integrity of identity records while enabling efficient data sharing across government systems for evidence-based policymaking.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
