TWENTIETH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 8778

INTRODUCED BY REP. JOSE “BONG” J. TEVES, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Republic Act No. 11053 or the Anti-Hazing Act of 2018 was enacted as a result of the death of Horacio “Atio” Castillo III, a University of Santo Tomas law student, in 2017 due to allegedly hazing. Despite the passage of the said law in 2018, at least 10 persons have reportedly died due to alleged hazing in various educational institutions. Just recently, in the first week of March 2026, another victim in the name of Mark Kenneth Alcedo, a first year maritime student in Cavite, died due to allegedly hazing. This means that notwithstanding the enactment of the law prohibiting hazing, it is still being practiced by several organizations, associations, societies, fraternities, and sororities. This representation believes that the reason why it is still being practiced is that many are still unaware of the prohibitions set forth in the Anti-Hazing Act of 2018 and the gravity of punishments included therein.

Although there is a legal principle of “Ignorantia Legis Non Excusat” which means “Ignorance of the law, excuses no one from compliance therewith”, we must still extensively educate the public about the prohibition and negative impact of hazing to our educational institutions, societies, communities, and last but not the least, to our fellow Filipinos.

Thus, this proposed measure seeks to institutionalize the provision of informational materials, seminars, and orientation to the public and strengthen the education campaign, especially in academic institutions and include the same in their curriculum and communities about the prohibited acts and penalties under the Anti-Hazing Act of 2018. This will instill knowledge to and dissuade our citizens from engaging in any form of hazing as a condition to entering any organization, association, society, fraternity, or sorority. Because this representation firmly believes that a legitimate organization, association, society, fraternity, or sorority does not resort to senseless violence in welcoming a member, brother, or sister.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
