EXPLANATORY NOTE

The pandemic has brought to the fore a major weakness in the country's system of mass transportation. Various studies found that 72% of Filipinos found it difficult to go to work when the COVID-19 pandemic hit and the lockdowns were implemented and even afterwards—and majority of them are ordinary workers and employees in the private and public sectors. These are those who do not own cars or even motorcycles, who cannot afford to ride in taxis or book ride-hailing services. Due to the long-time stoppage of the operations of buses, jeepney, FX vans, and the MRT and LRT, 87% of Filipinos in 2020 have hoped that the government would accord the public transportation system a higher priority, rather than private vehicles.

According to the Move as One Coalition and UP School of Urban and Regional Planning, 70% of road users in Metro Manila rely on public transportation but they are only able to use 22% of the road space. On the other hand, nearly a third of private vehicles (30%)—just a small minority—of those on the road use private vehicles, and they are given rein over almost 80% of the road space. It is estimated that there is not much difference in other parts of the country.

1 Otherwise put, majority of Filipinos are commuters, but they are crammed into
2 a very small portion of the roads. No wonder, sardinas-like public utility jeepneys,
3 buses, and vans as well as the MRT and LRT trains are common. Lines or clusters of 4 people waiting for rides, oftentimes spilling over into the roads, are the average sight
5 everyday.

6
7 Move as One continued with a forecast: Even if all projects under the ambitious
8 and much-touted Build, Build, Build Program were completed, there will be a “transport
9 supply shortage” come 2030. Therefore, there is an urgent need for “sustainable 10 mobility”—and one of the first measures towards that is laying down policies, 11 mechanisms, and infrastructure for a safe, healthful, budget-friendly, and fast mode of 12 transportation: bicycling.

13
14 Many have discovered and rediscovered bicycling in the past few years. In just 15 the education sector, many teachers and education support personnel “padyak their way 16 to school,” deliver modules, and do their various tasks. But they do not feel that the 17 appropriate recognition is accorded to cyclists and the bicycle as road users just like
18 everyone else, especially private vehicles. In fact, the Metropolitan Manila
19 Development Authority is finding ways to either narrow or remove the bicycle lanes,
20 or share it with motorcycles. As their complaint goes, “Tao din kami, pwedeng gumamit
21 ng kalsada. Gulong din kami, may karapatang umarangkada nang ligtas sa daan.”

22
23 This Bill aims to introduce the Philippine Bicycle Act to serve as the “unang 24 padyak,” the first ride towards a more mass-based system of transportation, in which 25 the respect and recognition to cyclists and the protection for their rights can be seen not 26 just in words but also in the policies, even in the infrastructure or the physical 27 components of the system. May this proposal give way for policies from the concerned
28 agencies, as well as other laws for safe cycling.

29
30 We aim, beginning with the Philippine Bicycle Act, to get more bikes out in the 31 streets, to make the roads safer for cyclists, and to promote a more health-friendly,
32 environment-friendly, and sustainable mode of transport.

33
34 This Bill is borne out of consolidated proposals in the 18th Congress for the above 35 mentioned objectives, and incorporated various inputs from bicycling advocates such 36 as Move As One. Among the salient provisions are the institutionalization of the bicycle
37 as a regular mode of transportation, the establishment of protected bike lanes in all 38 primary and secondary roads for the exclusive use of cyclists, a “hierarchy of road
39 users,” and the introduction of the rights of cyclists, such as the right to own and use
40 bicycles, parity of rights with drivers of motorized vehicles, and the right to be protected
41 from street harassment.

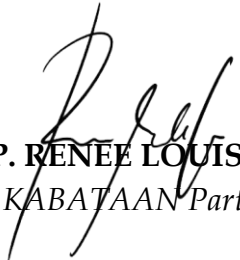

42
43 Also incorporated is the proposal of ACT Teachers and the Makabayan bloc in 44 the bill for Minimum Overtaking of Cyclists Distance Act which obliges all drivers of 45 motor vehicles to maintain a minimum overtaking distance of 1.5 meter from cyclists.
46 This particular bill was approved on third reading during the 17th Congress.

1
2 Also sought to be mandated is a Bike to Work Program and Bike Awareness
3 Program under the Department of Transportation, and the granting of incentives such 4 as tax reliefs and benefits, including a ₱2,500 tax deduction for employees using
5 bicycles, and the observance of the World Car-Free Day and National Car-Free Day.
6

7 The Committee on Transportation gave this Bill a green light during the 18th
8 Congress. Hopefully, this 20th Congress will set the wheels in motion for safer cycling, 9 make it less expensive and prohibitive for the ordinary Filipino, and raise the status of 10 cyclists as road users equal to all other road users. Approval of this Bill is therefore 11 earnestly sought.
