TWENTIETH CONGRESS

House Bill No. 10991

INTRODUCED BY REP. PATRICK MICHAEL “PM” D. VARGAS

AN ACT
GRANTING IMMEDIATE COMPENSATION BENEFITS FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE USERS, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE SECTION 5
OF REPUBLIC ACT NO. 11036, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE MENTAL HEALTH ACT

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The passage of Republic Act No. 11036, also known as the Mental Health Act, has paved the way for the Philippines to establish a mental health framework in terms of understanding the mental health struggles of Filipinos and delivering better mental health care to those in need.

However, access to mental health services for the greater population remains limited due to economic constraints. Thus, the government must increase its efforts to enable service users to equitably access appropriate care when needed.

This bill seeks to propose an amendment that ensures service users in need of mental healthcare receive adequate and immediate compensation benefits and/or any special financial assistance under existing laws should the service user sustain temporary or permanent mental disability while in the performance of duty or by reason of his or her office or position.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
