House Bill No. 994

Introduced by Rep. ANGELO MARCOS BARBA
2nd District, Ilocos Norte

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Ilocos Region is considered the major producer of garlic in the Philippines, accounting for 65 percent of the country's average total production of 14,695.29 metric tons.¹ The Province of Ilocos Norte has maintained its rank as the top producing province in the country contributing 55.7% or 4,161 metric tons to the national aggregates.²

Ilocos Norte has consistently produced more than 4,000 metric tons of garlic every year since recovering from the 2016 downfall in production due to pest and disease infestations.³ The province also devotes 1,880 hectares of land devoted to garlic farming.⁴

Thus, in recognition of its status as the biggest producer of garlic in the country, this bill seeks to declare Ilocos Norte as the "Garlic Capital of the Philippines." Such declaration will serve as an inspiration to boost garlic production in the country and ensure competitiveness in both domestic and foreign markets.

In light of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this measure is earnestly sought.
