House Bill No. 982

Introduced by Rep. ANGELO MARCOS BARBA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

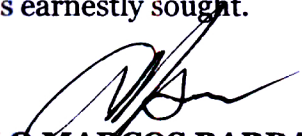

Magdalena Gamayo is a widely recognized master weaver who dedicated her life to the promotion and preservation of the Inabel weaving, the act or tradition of hand weaving cloth native to the Ilocos region. Literally translates to “woven cloth”, experienced local weavers use traditional wooden pedal frame looms to craft and design cloths that come in either plain or patterned variants.

Manang Magdalena Gamayo’s indispensable legacy in being the pioneer inabel weaver from Ilocos Norte, learning and mastering this self-taught craft at the age of fifteen (15), is eventually recognized as she was lauded with the GAMABA (“Gawad sa Manlilikha ng Bayan”) or National Living Treasures Award, where she is one of only sixteen (16) awardees.¹ Such distinction is considered as the highest state honor given to a Filipino in recognition of their outstanding work as a traditional folk artist.²

In view of the foregoing, it is therefore of utmost importance to honor and recognize Manang Magdalena’s remarkable contribution as a National Living Treasure and pride of Ilocos Norte. Verily, it is highly significant to establish the annual celebration of Magdalena Gamayo Day, to be commemorated every 13th day of August, the same day as her date of birth.

The Magdalena Gamayo Day serves not only as a commemoration of this relevant Ilocano recognition, but also, and more importantly, an opportunity for further awareness and advancement of Inabel weaving in Ilocos Norte and beyond.

Accordingly, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
