In the evening of Monday, July 23, 2018, Deputy Speaker Rolando G. Andaya Jr. called the session to order and remarked that the first item in the Order of Business was to proceed with the voting of an interim Presiding Officer and Majority Leader.

The Chair then requested the Legislative Security to get the Mace displayed in the House of Representatives' Archives. He also asked the Secretary General to direct the Legislative Security.

SUSPENSION OF SESSION

On motion of Majority Leader Castro (F.H.), the Chair suspended the session.

RESUMPTION OF SESSION

The session was resumed.

REMARKS OF MAJORITY
LEADER CASTRO (F.H.)

Upon recognition by the Chair, Majority Leader Castro stated for the record that the the Office of the Sergeant-at-Arms had been requested to produce the Mace of the House of Representatives in the Plenary Hall. He remarked that the Members had wasted so much time and they cannot further delay the proceedings. He added that they should continue with their proceedings and that if ever the Mace arrives, it should be displayed in the Session Hall.

Majority Leader Castro further explained that the presence of the Mace of the House in the Session Hall does not lend validity to the proceedings that will have to be conducted in the plenary, as its presence cannot take precedence over the authority of the majority of all the Members present in the proceedings.

MOTION OF MAJORITY
LEADER CASTRO (F.H.)

On subsequent motion of Majority Leader Castro, there being no objection, the Body proceeded with the plenary session.

REMARKS OF THE CHAIR

Anent the issue of the Mace of the House, the Chair explained that the mace is merely symbolic of the plenary powers of the Majority especially since about two-thirds of the Members of the House were present at that moment. He also compared the mace to the police badge as a mere symbol of authority.

REMARKS OF MAJORITY
LEADER CASTRO (F.H.)

At this point, Majority Leader Castro stated that the records will bear out that they had requested the production of the Mace in the plenary hall but notwithstanding said request and the time that had elapsed, the Mace had not been produced.

MOTION OF MAJORITY
LEADER CASTRO (F.H.)

On motion of Majority Leader Castro, there being no objection, the Chair directed the Secretary General to explain at the appropriate time why the Mace had not been produced in the plenary hall.

MOTION TO DECLARE THE POSITION OF SPEAKER VACANT

Thereupon, on motion of Majority Leader Castro (F.H.), the Chair recognized Rep. Antonino who moved to declare the position of the Speaker vacant. There being no objection, the motion was carried.

PERIOD OF NOMINATIONS FOR THE POSITION OF THE SPEAKER

Recognized by the Chair upon the Majority Leader's motion, Deputy Speaker Raneo "Ranie" E. Abu nominated the former President and incumbent Representative of the Second District of Pampanga, Rep. Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo for the position of Speaker of the House, on behalf of the Nacionalista Party and numerous other Members of the House who had stayed up to that moment to effect a change in the House leadership.

TERMINATION OF THE PERIOD FOR NOMINATIONS

There being no other nominations, on motion of Majority Leader Castro (F.H.), duly seconded by Representative Antonino and there being no objection, the Body closed the period for nominations.

MOTION OF MAJORITY
LEADER CASTRO (F.H.)

Majority Leader Castro then moved that the Body proceed with the voting.

REMARKS OF THE CHAIR

There being no other nominee for the position of Speaker, the Chair stated that there was a unanimous consensus that the Members had already elected Representative Macapagal-Arroyo as the new Speaker of the House.

NOMINAL VOTING ON THE LONE NOMINEE FOR SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

Thereafter, on motion of Majority Leader Castro (F.H.), there being no objection, the Members proceeded to the election of the new Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Chair then directed the Secretary General to call the Roll for nominal voting.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY OF REPRESENTATIVE ATIENZA

Upon recognition by the Chair, Rep. Jose L. Atienza Jr. inquired into the election process as there was only one candidate. He proposed for a viva voce voting instead to simplify the whole election process.

While he agreed with the points raised by Representative Atienza, the Chair nonetheless asked Majority Leader Castro (F.H.) as to the procedure to be adopted. The Majority Leader said that a nominal voting would be conducted, which ruling the Chair adopted.

NOMINAL VOTING ON THE LONE NOMINEE FOR SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

As moved by Majority Leader Castro (F.H.), there being no objection, the Body proceeded to the election of the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Chair then directed the Secretary General to call the Roll for nominal voting on the lone nominee for the Speaker of the House.

REMARKS OF THE CHAIR

At this point, the Chair informed the Body of the arrival in the Session Hall of the Mace of the House of Representatives.

MANIFESTATION OF REPRESENTATIVE DAZA

After being informed that he has not yet voted, Rep. Raul A. Daza abstained from voting in compliance with his being a member of the Liberal Party.

The Chair noted the manifestation.

QUERY FROM THE CHAIR

Thereafter, the Chair said that three members of the Makabayan Bloc had voted “No,” and clarified that this would be taken as an abstention from voting because a Member was supposed to either vote or not vote for the lone candidate. He also stressed that a Member’s vote would be counted as part of the attendance. After emphasizing that when Representative Tinio’s name was called, the members of the Makabayan Bloc were absent, he asked whether Representative Tinio’s participation in the voting meant that his name would be added to the attendance.

Representative Tinio answered in the affirmative after which the Chair informed the Body that with the inclusion of the three Members from the Makabayan Bloc who voted “No,” the attendance of the Members now totaled 244.

EXPLANATION OF REPRESENTATIVE TINIO’S VOTE

With the permission of the Chair, Representative Tinio clarified that the vote of a Member signifies whether or not, he or she supports the sole candidacy of Representative Macapagal-Arroyo as Speaker of the House. He explained that the Makabayan Bloc did not abstain from voting but cast a “No” vote which signified that they do not support the speakership of Representative Macapagal-Arroyo.

REMARKS OF THE CHAIR

In reply, the Chair stated that a “No” vote to the nomination of Representative Macapagal-Arroyo was misplaced at that moment and out of order.
